

DAY 1: MONDAY, DECEMBER 29th
THANKSGIVING FOR GOD'S FAITHFULNESS

BIBLE TEXT: Psalm 103:1–5; Lamentations 3:22–23; 1 Thessalonians 5:18

INTRODUCTION:

Thanksgiving opens the door to greater revelation of God's goodness. As we reflect on the year, we acknowledge that it was not by our power or wisdom, but by God's mercy and faithfulness that we are still standing. Gratitude positions us for increase, restoration, and divine favour in this season and the coming year.

PRAYER POINTS:

1. Father, I thank You for the gift of life and breath throughout this year.
Thank You for sustaining me daily, even when I was unaware of Your hand (Psalm 3:5).
2. Lord, thank You for Your mercies that were renewed every morning.
Even when I failed, Your compassion did not fail me (Lamentations 3:22–23).
3. I thank You for divine protection over my life, family, and loved ones.
You preserved us from dangers seen and unseen (Psalm 91:1).
4. Father, thank You for provision throughout the year.
You made a way for me even in seasons of lack and uncertainty (Philippians 4:19).
5. Lord, I thank You for victories both visible and invisible.
Battles I never knew about, You fought on my behalf (Exodus 14:14).
6. Thank You, Lord, for strength during difficult moments.
When I felt weak, You renewed my strength and carried me through (Isaiah 40:31).
7. Father, I thank You for prayers answered and prayers delayed.
I trust that everything worked together for my good (Romans 8:28).
8. Thank You for divine guidance throughout the year.
You directed my steps and kept me from costly mistakes (Proverbs 3:5–6).
9. Lord, I appreciate You for lessons learned through challenges.
What the enemy meant for harm, You used to grow and refine me (James 1:2–3).
10. Thank You for peace in times of uncertainty and confusion.
You calmed my heart when circumstances were unstable (John 14:27).
11. Father, thank You for spiritual growth and deeper understanding of You.
I did not remain the same; I grew in faith and maturity (Colossians 2:6–7).
12. Thank You for health, healing, and strength in my body.
Where sickness tried to rise, Your healing power prevailed (Jeremiah 30:17).
13. Lord, I thank You for family, friends, and supportive relationships.
Thank You for those You used to encourage and stand with me (Ecclesiastes 4:9–10).
14. Thank You for doors You opened and doors You mercifully closed.
You protected my destiny by redirecting my path (Revelation 3:8).
15. Father, I return all glory, honour, and praise to You alone.
May my life continually testify of Your goodness (Psalm 115:1).

DAY 2: TUESDAY, DECEMBER 30th
REFLECTION, REPENTANCE, AND RENEWAL
BIBLE TEXT: Psalm 51:10–12; 2 Corinthians 7:10; 1 John 1:9

INTRODUCTION:

Before stepping into a new year, God calls us to examine our hearts. Repentance restores intimacy with God, reflection brings clarity, and renewal prepares us for greater responsibility. In this session and in the coming year, we need a fresh spiritual renewal and a realignment with God's purposes and plans for our lives.

PRAYER POINTS:

1. Father, search my heart and reveal anything that displeases You.
Expose every hidden fault so I may walk uprightly before You (Psalm 139:23–24).
2. Lord, I repent of every known and unknown sin.
Wash me thoroughly and restore my fellowship with You (1 John 1:9).
3. Cleanse me from every form of unrighteousness.
Remove guilt, shame, and condemnation from my life (Psalm 51:2).
4. Create in me a clean heart, O God.
Let my motives, thoughts, and desires align with Your will (Psalm 51:10).
5. Renew a right and steadfast spirit within me.
Strengthen my inner man to remain faithful in every season (Psalm 51:10).
6. Father, restore the joy of my salvation.
Let my walk with You be marked by joy, not routine (Psalm 51:12).
7. Deliver me from spiritual dryness and complacency.
Rekindle my passion for prayer, worship, and Your Word (Romans 12:11).
8. Lord, help me forgive others as You have forgiven me.
Remove bitterness and resentment from my heart (Matthew 6:14–15).
9. Break every cycle of repeated mistakes in my life.
Grant me wisdom and discipline to walk in freedom (Galatians 5:1).
10. I renounce every habit that draws me away from You.
Empower me by Your Spirit to overcome fleshly desires (Hebrews 12:1).
11. Father, realign my priorities with Your kingdom agenda.
Let nothing take Your rightful place in my life (Matthew 6:33).
12. Renew my mind daily through Your Word.
Replace old patterns of thinking with truth and faith (Romans 12:2).
13. Strengthen me to live a holy and pleasing life before You.
Let my lifestyle reflect Your character (1 Peter 1:15–16).
14. Heal my conscience where it has been wounded by past failures.
Let me walk boldly, knowing I am forgiven (Hebrews 9:14).
15. Prepare me spiritually for the new year ahead.
Make me ready for new assignments and responsibilities (Isaiah 43:19).

DAY 3: WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 31st
DIVINE DIRECTION & ALIGNMENT FOR THE NEW YEAR
BIBLE TEXT: Proverbs 3:5–6; Psalm 32:8; Isaiah 30:21

INTRODUCTION:

As the year draws to a close, seeking divine direction is essential. We must surrender our plans, decisions, and ambitions to God, seeking His clarity, wisdom, and alignment with His perfect will as we step into the new year.

PRAYER POINTS:

1. Father, I submit my plans and ambitions for the coming year into Your hands; direct my paths according to Your will (Proverbs 3:5–6).
2. Lord, remove confusion and uncertainty from my decisions and align my heart with Your divine purpose (Psalm 32:8).
3. I ask for clarity in every major decision I will make in the new year, that I may not walk in error (Isaiah 30:21).
4. Father, close every door that is not ordained by You and open the ones that will advance Your purpose in my life (Revelation 3:7).
5. Lord, guide me away from distractions and help me focus on what truly matters in Your plan for me (Psalm 37:23).
6. I receive wisdom beyond my understanding to navigate complex situations and responsibilities (James 1:5).
7. Father, align my career, relationships, and ministry with Your timing and design (Ecclesiastes 3:11).
8. Let Your peace confirm every step I take, and let unrest expose paths I should not follow (Colossians 3:15).
9. Lord, help me to discern between good opportunities and God-ordained opportunities (Romans 12:2).
10. I surrender control and trust You completely with my future, knowing You go ahead of me (Deuteronomy 31:8).
11. Father, order my steps daily so I will not miss divine appointments prepared for me (Psalm 119:133).
12. Let my ears be sensitive to Your voice, even in seasons of silence and waiting (John 10:27).
13. Lord, remove haste and impatience from my spirit so I can walk in Your perfect timing (Habakkuk 2:3).
14. I receive grace to obey divine instructions, even when they challenge my comfort or logic (Genesis 12:1).
15. Father, let my life in the coming year reflect Your wisdom, order, and glory (Psalm 25:4–5).
